$$$$$$ FAMILY DOLLAR COMING $$$$$$

The Family Dollar is still in the works and will begin construction soon. The surveying of the land has been completed along with the design and layout of the building.

Kosse Community Medical Clinic

Progress is happening with the Kosse Community Medical Clinic. The clearing of the land has begun. The construction will begin sometime in September on the Kosse Community Medical Clinic, approximately a 2000 square foot building will be constructed with parking amenities.

Texas Parks and Wildlife Small Community Grant

Kosse Economic Development Committee will be pursuing a Texas Parks and Wildlife Department grant for improvements to the Baseball Fields. The grant was approved to pursue by the City Council at the last meeting which was held on April 18th. The grant application will open in June and close in October. The EDC will be asking for supporting letters of documentation from the various organizations and individuals of Kosse in support of improving our ballfields. Phase 1 of improvement will consist of field improvements, new bleachers, restrooms, concession stand, storage room and perhaps a covered pavilion.

Your Local Economic Development Committee

The Kosse Economic Development Committee was formed in September of 2013. Currently your board of directors are Randy Hunter, Lena Smith, Sue Mills, Randy Willard, Jack Milstead, Karen Partin, Stacy Lockhart, Linda Valls, and Dovie Perry. Any business ideas, or budding entrepreneurs are encouraged to talk with your local directors.

Garbage Pick up Dates Change

Waste Connections Formerly Progressive Waste Solutions will now be picking up the residential trash on Thursdays. They have requested that your garbage be set out the night before if possible. Hopefully the problematic trash has been resolved as time will tell.....

Citizen Concerns

To bring your concerns of Kosse known, you may bring them to the City Office. We will work effectively in trying to resolve all things that you may be concerned about. If you do not bring your concerns to the proper channels we have no way of effectively improving whatever the situation may be, thank you.
